SACRED HEART NEWS

We entered the season of Lent, and we will be preparing ourselves to commemorate our Lord's Passion and Resurrection. Bishop Fulton Sheen once said:

"Unless there is a Good Friday in your life, there can be no Easter Sunday."

We must prepare ourselves for the desert. meaning we might face temptations and distractions in our lives. How are we going to respond to them?

It is not easy to be a disciple and we must be prepared when life leads us into the desert of the wilderness. From my own experience I can tell you that being in the desert can be challenging. I lived in Arizona a long time ago and I visited the desert during the day. I refused to go to the desert at night, I am not a big fan of darkness, weird sounds, weird animals, and the uncertainty of the darkness.

The desert and the wilderness are very intimidating and scary. I remember losing track of which way we must go, the dryness, the hot air, and the fear of not knowing when we will find a snake or a scorpion. I believe one of the most annoying things was the sand and the dust increasingly getting into our clothes, our nose, our ears, our nails.

I was reflecting on the experience Our Lord went through and how He overcame the desert, and the temptations. Our LENT season should help us to return to God's loving arms. Lent helps us to reflect in those times we walk in darkness. Those times when sin entered like the dust in our bodies in silence. It was hard to detect until we removed our clothes and took a shower. SIN is hard to detect until we do an examination of conscience and go to CONFESSION.

Jesus demonstrated his power over Satan and temptations. He shows us how obedience to God and following the right path might lead us to a successful life and a successful mission. Obedience paid off!

We are not alone in our trials and challenges. God is with us and, He can give us hope, strength, and endurance. But we must choose Him and His help to walk away freely and be empowered from our personal temptations.

No doubt we need FAITH IN JESUS and a solid prayer life so we can overcome the wilderness. I believe one of the keys to overcoming our personal wilderness is PATIENCE. We must be prudent and patient in our journey.

Another great weapon we can use when passing the wilderness is the Holy Rosary. Mary can walk with us, and we can ask her for her protection.

What can prepare us for the desert and the wilderness? PRAYER, PRAYER. A close relationship with Jesus who knows our struggles and temptations.

Finally, our desert, our wilderness could be used as a time for learning too.

I hope this LENT is the most spiritual experience in your life and faith. Make spiritual resolutions and ask the Lord to help you to persevere. DO NOT FORGET TO GIVE UP SOMETHING...HOPEFULLY SOMETHING DIFFERENT TO SODAS, SNACKS, SWEETS, AND FOOD. Ask me...I have some ideas. Push yourself harder this year. JESUS IS SO WORTH IT!!!

May you and your family have a blessed LENTEN SEASON. - Father Paco

Food Pantry

The Food Pantry is serving those in need. Would you please consider donating something from the following list of items needed or sending a monetary donation? We need soup - tomato, cream of mushroom, cream of chicken, crackers, mashed potatoes, stuffing mix, and canned chicken. Thank you so much for your assistance.

Hearing Assistance

For those of you that have a hard time hearing during mass, we have 4 assisted hearing headsets available in the sacristy. If you need assistance with hearing during mass please notify one of the ushers or Tom Cushing and they will help you with a headset. These should be able to be worn over most hearing aids.

This Lenten video series will radically transform your love for the Blessed Sacrament.

Don't miss our video series Daily Bread: Discover the Eucharist in Scripture, coming to FORMED this Lent! Based on Dr. Brant Pitre's acclaimed book Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist, this video series will radically transform your love for the Blessed Sacrament.

Daily Bread: Discover the Eucharist in Scripture demonstrates that our understanding of the Eucharist dates back to the earliest Jewish Christians. Far from being a later invention of the Catholic Church, the Eucharist is the fulfillment of many Old Testament promises.

First Sunday of Lent: Turning Towards Jesus

WORK OF MERCY: Admonish the Sinner

THE GRACE I SEEK: to turn away from sin towards Jesus

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. AMEN.

Pause for a few moments, and allow yourself to become aware of Jesus' gift of himself in the Eucharist. Realize that, at this very moment, the Lord of Life is gazing upon you with great love. Allow yourself to receive his loving gaze. You are his beloved child. Rest in his loving gaze.

Thank Jesus for the gift of himself in the Eucharist.

ASK FOR THE GRACE: Jesus, help me to turn away from any sin in my life.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3–4 times. Allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you through this passage.

“Beloved: Christ suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit.” (1 Peter 3:18)

REFLECTION QUESTION — Allow yourself to sit with these questions for a while, being attentive to how the Lord is speaking in your heart.

During this time of Lent, Jesus is inviting us to root out sin in our lives as the first step in cultivating a culture that does not accept sin. What is one area of sin you are struggling with right now? Be concrete and specific. Give this struggle to Christ on the Cross so that he can put it to death.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3–4 times. Again, allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Let the Holy Spirit speak to you through this passage.

“After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: ‘This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.’” (Mark 1:14–15)

REFLECTION QUESTION — Allow yourself to sit with these questions for a while, being attentive to how the Lord is speaking in your heart.

Repenting of sin—turning away from what distracts us from Jesus—is only half the battle. We must also make an effort to build a culture that does not accept sin. We must cast aside sinful alliance and learn to walk together with Christ. How is the Lord calling you to support others in humility as they learn to walk more closely with him? Ask him who in your life he is calling you to assist in seeking out his merciful love.

Remain in silence with the Lord. Allow him to speak in the silence, in your heart. Receive his presence. If it helps, write down what you sense the Lord communicating to you during this time of prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER — Grant, almighty God, through the yearly observances of holy Lent, that we may grow in understanding of the riches hidden in Christ and by worthy conduct pursue their effects. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen. (Collect, First Sunday of Lent)

SUNDAY MASS CONNECTION — At every Mass, Jesus offers himself to the Father for us. We can always join our own offerings with Jesus at Mass. This Sunday, offer your desire to turn away from a specific sin and focus your attention more fully on Jesus. Joining your sacrifice to his, consider praying for all those in the world who struggle with your same area of sin and are not repentant.

LOVE IN ACTION — In the Gospel reading above, Jesus asks us to “repent, and believe in the gospel.” To believe in the Gospel message more deeply, we must immerse ourselves in the actual reading of the Gospels. Consider giving yourself a Lenten challenge to read from the Gospels for a set amount of time each day, even if it is only five minutes. Allow that prayerful reading of the Gospels to help you turn away from sin, and encourage others to do the same.

Living the Eucharist: Making God's Love Visible In Our Daily Lives

Join Fr Denis Lemieux and the parishes of St Ann in Carthage MO and Sacred Heart in Webb City MO for a two evening Lenten parish mission. Come and be drawn into the heights and depths of the Mass so as to renew and strengthen our faith and love of Jesus' Eucharistic gift and presence.

First Evening: God's welcome and God's word gathers us together and sets us firmly on the path of life.

Second Evening: God's offering in Christ draws us in to offer our lives through, with, and in Him in love and service.

Dates: St Ann's, Carthage, Feb 25-26
Sacred Heart, Webb City, Feb 27-28

Time: 6:30 p.m. - 8 p.m.

A free will offering will be taken up in each parish on the second night to defray Fr Lemieux's travel expenses.

Fr Denis Lemieux is a member of the Madonna House Apostolate, an international movement of lay people and priests (see madonnahouse.org). He is an author of multiple books on the spiritual life and has given retreats and missions across North America. His current assignment is to the Marian Acres house of prayer and hospitality in Salem MO.

Prayer for Family Members Who Lack Faith

Good Jesus,
look with compassion on my loved ones who are not able to believe in you right now.

Ready them to accept the gift of faith.

Let them know that the life you offer them is much sweeter than whatever they fear might be lost through belief in you.

Give them eyes to see that all they savor and value so highly in this life is just a small token of what you long to give each one of us.

Lord,
please help all believers to
become faithful,
living signs of your love.

I believe you accept my concern
for these dear ones,
for you are the Good Shepherd
who seeks the lost with more passion than I could ever imagine.
