SACRED HEART NEWS

Our Second Sunday of Lent presents us with powerful readings. Our first reading and the Gospel share the word SACRIFICE.

Abraham wants to please God and is willing to listen, to obey and to sacrifice something so valuable to him, his own son. Perhaps the Lord is not going to go to the extreme to sacrifice a friend or a family member but us for Him.

Sacrifices are important in our lives but also our spiritual life. We can sacrifice a lot for Jesus and for His Church. I believe the challenge is not only to be a good disciple of Christ. The real challenges are being loving, being forgiving, serving others, being patient, sacrificing our time...listening and being patient to someone who is telling us the drama of his or her life. We struggle to sacrifice our time and priorities for Jesus. Perhaps you think you have sacrificed a lot for your family and work. I heard people saying, I SACRIFICE A LOT FOR YOU. But what about our faith and our spiritual growth...what about sacrificing more time in prayer or adoration. What about sacrificing a weekend for a retreat or paying for someone so a kid or a youth in your own family can go to a retreat or a conference. What about taking Good Friday off this year and attending the Church's services. What about fasting from electronics during our TRIDUUM...?

Every year we hear stories of people making "sacrifices" in order to secure a ticket for the Super Bowl. What about sacrificing for the Church?

I asked a man recently and his answer just blew my mind....IT IS NOT THE SAME. And I told him, our final judgement is not the same either.

Our Gospel is so challenging this weekend...The Transfiguration means our personal invitation to BE TRANSFORMED into something new and different.

The Transfiguration of Jesus reminds us of our "shining moments" but also those moment of darkness and in our lives.

Transfiguration is about OUR TRANSFORMATION too. And the only way possible is by listening to Jesus. Maybe our transformation this year involves LISTENING TO JESUS.

I read someone where this: "The Transfigurations gives us a brief and fleeting glimpse of Jesus in all his glory. It is a taste of what is to come. It is offered to encourage and challenge us in our daily lives. It reminds us that our lives are far more than what see, hear, and experience every day."

*Have I allowed Jesus to "transfigure" my life?
What needs to be "transform / transfigure" in your life?*

- Father Paco

2nd Collection for the Church in Central & Eastern Europe - Febr 24th & 25th

The Second collection this weekend is to support the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. The Unites States Conference of Catholic Bishops' annual collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe – this year themed "Restore the Church, Build the Future" – allows Catholics in that region to reconstruct religious buildings and evangelize through their actions to people who were unable to practice their faith for multiple generations, and who still have state restrictions imposed on their religious freedoms. See the enclosed flier for more information.

Food Pantry

We need canned tuna and canned chicken, crackers, spaghetti, spaghetti sauce, and rice. If you would prefer us to do the shopping, please send in a donation marked Food Pantry. We thank you for your help as we serve the hungry in our community, especially this Lenten season.

Hearing Assistance

For those of you that have a hard time hearing during mass, we have 4 assisted hearing headsets available in the sacristy. If you need assistance with hearing during mass please notify one of the ushers or Tom Cushing and they will help you with a headset. These should be able to be worn over most hearing aids.

O Sacrament Most Holy

O Sacrament Most Holy,
O Sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving,
be every moment thine.

LENTEN RESOURCES

Now Available on FORMED:

This Lenten video series will radically transform your love for the Blessed Sacrament.

Don't miss our video series Daily Bread: Discover the Eucharist in Scripture, coming to FORMED this Lent! Based on Dr. Brant Pitre's acclaimed book Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist, this video series will radically transform your love for the Blessed Sacrament.

Daily Bread: Discover the Eucharist in Scripture demonstrates that our understanding of the Eucharist dates back to the earliest Jewish Christians. Far from being a later invention of the Catholic Church, the Eucharist is the fulfillment of many Old Testament promises.

Living the Eucharist: Making God's Love Visible In Our Daily Lives

Join Fr Denis Lemieux and the parishes of St Ann in Carthage MO and Sacred Heart in Webb City MO for a two evening Lenten parish mission. Come and be drawn into the heights and depths of the Mass so as to renew and strengthen our faith and love of Jesus' Eucharistic gift and presence.

First Evening: God's welcome and God's word gathers us together and sets us firmly on the path of life.

Second Evening: God's offering in Christ draws us in to offer our lives through, with, and in Him in love and service.

February 25th & 26th - St Ann's, Carthage
February 27th - 28th - Sacred Heart, Webb City
6:30 - 8:00 pm

A free will offering will be taken up in each parish on the second night to defray Fr Lemieux's travel expenses.

Fr Denis Lemieux is a member of the Madonna House Apostolate, an international movement of lay people and priests (see madonnahouse.org). He is an author of multiple books on the spiritual life and has given retreats and missions across North America. His current assignment is to the Marian Acres house of prayer and hospitality in Salem MO.

Second Sunday of Lent: Listening for the Voice of God

WORK OF MERCY: Bear Wrongs Patiently

THE GRACE I SEEK: to recognize the voice of Jesus in my life

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. AMEN.

Pause for a few moments, and allow yourself to become aware of Jesus' gift of himself in the Eucharist. Realize that, at this very moment, the Lord of Life is gazing upon you with great love. Allow yourself to receive his loving gaze. You are his beloved child. Rest in his loving gaze.

Thank Jesus for the gift of himself in the Eucharist.

ASK FOR THE GRACE: Jesus, help me to trust you are speaking to me and to recognize your voice.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3–4 times. Allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you through this passage.

"I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore." (Genesis 22:16–17)

REFLECTION QUESTION — Allow yourself to sit with these questions for a while, being attentive to how the Lord is speaking in your heart.

The Lord often asks difficult things of us, especially if our hearts have wandered away from him. However, he always blesses us more than we could have ever imagined when we follow his promptings. What is one concrete blessing in your life Jesus has given you after you chose to listen to and follow him?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3–4 times. Again, allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Let the Holy Spirit speak to you through this passage.

"Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, 'This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.' Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them." (Mark 9:7–8)

REFLECTION QUESTION — Allow yourself to sit with these questions for a while, being attentive to how the Lord is speaking in your heart.

Gazing upon the Eucharist, recognize that Jesus is with you. The Father tells us in this Gospel reading that Jesus is his beloved Son. Is there an area of your heart that still struggles to believe that this is really God's beloved Son, present in a most special way in the Eucharist? Ask Jesus to help you see his face and hear his voice in the Blessed Sacrament.

Remain in silence with the Lord. Allow him to speak in the silence, in your heart. Receive his presence. If it helps, write down what you sense the Lord communicating to you during this time of prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER — O God, who have commanded us to listen to your beloved Son, be pleased, we pray, to nourish us inwardly by your word, that, with spiritual sight made pure, we may rejoice to behold your glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen. (Collect, Second Sunday of Lent)

SUNDAY MASS CONNECTION — At every Mass, Jesus offers himself to the Father for us. We can always join our own offerings with Jesus at Mass. This Sunday, offer your desire to recognize Jesus and to hear his voice more clearly in the Eucharist, trusting that he will bless you abundantly as you follow him more closely.

LOVE IN ACTION — Most of us have family, friends, or coworkers that do not understand our belief that Jesus is truly present and communicates himself to us in the Blessed Sacrament. This can be a deep source of suffering, but bearing this patiently and praying for their conversion can be an occasion of grace and peace for both them and you! This week, consider choosing one person in your life who does not believe in the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, and pray daily for them to encounter Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Prayer for Family Members Who Lack Faith

Good Jesus, look with compassion on my loved ones who are not able to believe in you right now.

Ready them to accept the gift of faith.

Let them know that the life you offer them is much sweeter than whatever they fear might be lost through belief in you.

Give them eyes to see that all they savor and value so highly in this life is just a small token of what you long to give each one of us.

Lord, please help all believers to become faithful, living signs of your love.

I believe you accept my concern for these dear ones, for you are the Good Shepard who seeks the lost with more passion than I could ever imagine.
